

Home Depot Gives $400K to ATL Nonprofits

November 4, 2009

The Home Depot Inc.'s charitable arm The Home Depot Foundation gave $400,000 in grants to 20 metro Atlanta nonprofits as part of its fourth Building Community Day.

The Home Depot Foundation sponsors Building Community Day in partnership with the Georgia Center for Nonprofits. The grants are focused on creating a healthier and more sustainable region.

Building Community Day grant recipients each got $20,000:

- Arthritis Foundation - Georgia Chapter
- Atlanta Legal Aid
- Boy Scouts of America (Atlanta Area Council)
- Breman Jewish Heritage Museum
- Camp Twin Lakes
- Center for Pan Asian Community Services
- Communities in Schools Georgia
- First Foundation for Childhood Literacy
- Foster Care Support Foundation
- Girl Scouts of Northwest Georgia
- HeroBox
- Historic Oakland Cemetery Foundation
- Junior Achievement of Georgia
- Komen for the Cure
- Salvation Army
- Special Olympics of Georgia
- Tommy Nobis Center
- Travelers Aid (HOPE Atlanta)
- WPBA
- YWCA of Northwest Georgia

During 2009, The Home Depot Foundation has invested more than $3 million in Atlanta area nonprofits, including who got grants Wednesday. Other grant recipients include Woodruff Arts Center, Piedmont Park, Atlanta Community Food Bank and Atlanta Habitat for Humanity.